A Relaxed and Memorable Day

1. Had Irani chai with Manu in the evening.
2. Wednesday acted a bit odd, but things got back to normal after the lunch break.
3. Liked the way she behaved with me today.
4. Yesterday, I ordered an Obito Uchiha T-shirt on Meesho.
5. Manu shared about his vehicle brake being broken in the morning.
6. Felt very good today since work was less (boss went to branches for meetings).
7. Spent free time watching Naruto and reels  $\emptyset=P$  .
8. Wednesday got angry on me because I was scolding her too much because of her responses but Idk why she was behaving like that, i am sure she will ignore Tommorrow as well.

This is actually the 10 sep dairy.

Wednesday behaved lovely with me but I expected she will be angry on me.

I have skipped my work of finances

Download OMW and enjoyed it

Add new options to my invoice fixer.

11 sep dairy

Wednesday got fever :(

Monu got fever 2.

Yesterday I did almost every work except my GSTR1 updation and tr checking.
Tr site was not working yesterday that's I wasn't able to complete it.

Hope manu and Wednesday will be recovered soon....

Guess one of them don't come to office Tomorrow.

I have built a login system for my e invoice generator so multiple dealers can login in and generate their e invoices.

I was thinking to earn money through my e invoice generator but I don't know if anybody's gonna buy it.

The end.
